
{ E P O C H É }
ἐποχή a journal for the history of philosophy

ETHICS, INDIFFERENCE, AND SOCIAL CONCERN:
ESSAYS IN HONOR OF THE WORK OF CHARLES SCOTT

Preface
NANCY TUANA	v
Freedom and Oppression in North America
CHARLES SCOTT	1
The Idiom of the Ethical
DENNIS J. SCHMIDT	15
Indifference, Description, Difference
JOHN J. STUHR	25
Whatever Is Hardest: Charles Scott's Practice of Thinking
LADELLE McWHORTER	39

Improper Borders: On the Openings and Convergences of Continental Philosophy with Non-Western Thought in Charles Scott's Lectures on Cultural Borders ALEJANDRO A. VALLEGA	55
My Travels in Scott-land ROBERT BERNASCONI	67
Narrative as Trauma and Resilience: Charles Scott's Living with Indifference DAVID FARRELL KRELL	75
The Middle Voice of Charles Scott: The Intimacy of Attentiveness and the Life of Wonder WALTER BROGAN	89
On Freedom in Another Sense JAMES RISSE	99
Bodily Being and Indifference: An Encounter with Charles Scott's Living with Indifference DANIELA VALLEGA-NEU	111
Gappiness in Dimensional Accounts MICHAEL A. DEERE	123
Finding My Way through Moral Space: A Whim-Wham for Charles Scott JOHN LYSAKER	143
Once Again: What's the Matter with "Nature"? JOHN SALLIS	155