

Idealistic Studies

Table of Contents

Volume 41, Numbers 1 & 2 — Spring & Summer 2011

James R. Mensch: Patočka's Conception of the Subject of Human Rights	1
Tsarina Doyle: Nietzsche, Consciousness, and Human Agency	11
Junichi Kasuga: A Departure between Two Extremes: R. G. Collingwood's Religion and Philosophy Reconsidered	31
Timothy C. Lord: Anti-Realism in R. G. Collingwood's Theory of Art as Imagination	45
F. Scott Scribner: Idealism's Corpse or the Prosthetics of Suicide: Technologies of Retrieval in Fichte and Schelling	55
Alessandro Medri: The Ontological Proof and the Notion of Experience in Schelling	69
Kristi Sweet: Philosophy and the Public Sphere: Kant on Moral Education and Political Critique	83
Gertrudis Van de Vijver and Eli Noé: The Constraint Is the Possibility: A Dynamical Perspective on Kant's Theory of Objectivity	95
Erich Fuchs: Fichte: A System of Freedom? Biographical-Philosophical Reflections	113