

Contents

Who are His Poor?: Reading Levinas with Rancière	JOHN DRABINSKI	1
Recipe of a Life: The Sediments, Fragments, and Flow in an Afro-Latin Caribbean Identity	GERTRUDE JAMES-GONZALEZ DE ALLEN	15
The Sword, the Cross, and the Pen: Controlling the Subject through Self-Creation	ABIGAIL GOSSELIN	35
Family, Affection, and Confucian Civil Society: The Politico-Philosophical Implications of the New Family Law in Korea	SUNGMOON KIM	51
On Orientation in Thought: Hannah Arendt and Michèle Le Dœuff	MARGUERITE LA CAZE	77
Habermas, Derrida, and the Genre Distinction between Fiction and Argument	SERGEIY SANDLER	103
Hermeneutics, Postcolonialism, and Overcoming Ethnocentrism in Intercultural Communication	HELDER DE SCHUTTER	121
The Bohr-Heidegger Mischling on Language: An Experiment in Hybrid Hermeneutics	JAMES R. WATSON	147

Reviews

ALAIN BADIOU, Metapolitics	NIC VEROLI	161
HENRY BERGSON, Key Writings	ALEJANDRO DE ACOSTA	162
EDWARD SAID, Freud and the Non-European	COELI FITZPATRICK	163
RONALD E. SANTONI, Sartre on Violence: Curiously Ambivalent	GAIL M. PRESBEY	164
Contributors		168