

Contents

The Tale of Knowledge: Weaving Identity Beyond its Limits	MONIKA BRODNICKA	1
The Plantation System Throughout Jamaica and the Early Caribbean: An Epoch of Exploitation Ushers in Neoliberal Economics	JASON ST. JOHN OLIVER CAMPBELL	19
Tuchē and Technē : An Archeology of Luck and Poetic Art in Greek Thought	JULIO CÉSAR DÍAZ	31
What's In a Lie? Rousseau's Reveries and Ribbon Incident	MARY GENNUSO	45
The Essence of What it Means to be Human	DENISE KLEINRICHERT	63
White Feminism and Antiracism: Connecting Within/Across Communities	CRISTA LEBENS	73
The Secret Relationship Between Philosophy and Religion	AMY NEWMAN	85
The Ab-omination of Desolation Speaking or on the Consequences of Speaking Ab-solutely	JOSHUA BEN DAVID NICHOLS	101
Comprehending the Incomprehensibility: The Crossing of Art and Philosophy	XIAOLUN QI	119
Cinematic Thinking and the Meaning of History: A. Tarkovsky, The Passion According to Andrei	NATALIA L. RUDYCHEV	141
Only a Fragile Unity: "Politics Without Party" and Leninism after the Revolution	JOSHUA SYKES	149
Contributors		167