

CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXV, 2000

Published January 2000

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR	1
JOSEPH MARGOLIS , Temple University Back to the Future: Philosophy at the End of the Century	3
ROBERT AUDI , University of Nebraska, Lincoln Philosophical Naturalism at the Turn of the Century	27
TIMOTHY AND LYDIA MCGREW , Western Michigan University Foundationalism, Transitivity and Confirmation	47
JOHN POST AND DEREK TURNER , Vanderbilt University Sic Transitivity: Reply to McGrew and McGrew	67
A. MINH NGUYEN , Columbia University On a Searlean Objection to Rosenthal's Theory of State-Consciousness	83
KEN AKIBA , New York University Logic and Truth: A Fictionalist View	101
BRIAN MACPHERSON , University of Michigan—Dearborn Egocentric Omniscience and Self-Ascriptive Belief	125
DAVID REITER , Grand Canyon University Plantinga on the Epistemic Implications of Naturalism	141
ANDREW LATUS , St. Francis Xavier University Moral and Epistemic Luck	149
KENNETH R. WESTPHAL , University of New Hampshire Hegel's Internal Critique of Naïve Realism	173
JAMES R. MENSCH , St. Francis Xavier University An Objective Phenomenology: Husserl Sees Colors	231

CANDICE S. GOAD , University of Colorado
Leibniz's Early Views on Matter, Modes, and God	261
BRYAN G. WIEBE , St. Thomas More College
Unavoidable Blameworthiness	275
JOHN LEMOS , Coe College
The Problems with Emotivism: Reflections on Some MacIntyrean Arguments	285
S. E. NEY , University of Michigan—Flint
Are Grandfathers an Endangered Species?	311
REMI ODEDOYIN , University of Essex
Overlapping Consensus: Objectivising a Subjective Standpoint	323
PAUL D. FORSTER , University of Ottawa
Problems with Rorty's Pragmatist Defence of Liberalism	345
DENNIS R. COOLEY , East Carolina University
Readjusting Utility for Justice	363
HENRY E. CLINE , Albion College
The Priority of Democratic Autonomy over Discriminatory Religion	381
ROBERT ARP , Saint Louis University
Freud's Wretched Makeshift and Scheler's Religious Act	405
PHILLIP GOGGANS , Seattle Pacific University
A Minimalist Ethic of Duty	431
PHIL GOSSELIN , Brandon University
Can the Potentiality Argument Survive the Contraception Reductio?	437
KURT TORELL AND ALAN G. MARSHALL , Lewis-Clark State College
Socrates Meets Two Coyotes	459
JAMES A. RYAN , Huron College, University of Western Ontario
Coherentist Naturalism in Ethics	471
JILL SIGMAN , New York, New York
How Dances Signify: Exemplification, Representation, and Ordinary Movement	489