

Contents

Why a Feminist Volume on Pluralism? Bonnie Mann and Jean Keller	1
PLURALISM'S FAILURES AND CERTAIN CONDITIONS FOR THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCCESS
Indigenous Agencies and the Pluralism of Empire Scott L. Pratt	13
What Would Philosophic Pluralism Look Like?: True Dialogue, Epistemic Credibility, Rational Parity, and Death in the University Jennifer Lisa Vest	31
Asking Too Much? Civility vs. Pluralism Alison Reiheld	59
Attending to Others: Simone Weil and Epistemic Pluralism Shari Stone-Mediatore	79
FEMINIST PLURALISM AND RELIGIOUS WORLDVIEWS
Islamic Feminisms and Freedom Allison Weir	97
Is an "Islamic Feminism" Possible?: Gender Politics in the Contemporary Islamic Republic of Iran Paria Gashtili	121
Beyond the Modern/Religious Dichotomy: The Veil and Feminist Solidarity in Contemporary Turkey Fulden Ibrahimhakkioğlu	141

Philosophy, Religion, Race, and Queerness: A Question of Accommodation or Access	157
Kim Q. Hall
FEMINIST PLURALISM AND FUNDAMENTAL VALUES
Value Pluralism, Intuitions, and Reflective Equilibrium	175
Lisa Tessman
Radical-cum-Relation: Bridging Feminist Ethics and Native Individual Autonomy	203
Shay Welch	