

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

A MULTIDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL

Contents

Vol. 10, Nos. 2, 3 & 4

Selected Papers from the *Colloquium on Military Obedience: Ethical, Military and Legal Perspectives

- Guest Editors' Introduction 3
Carl Ceulemans and Guy van Damme
- The Soldier and the State: An Analysis of Samuel Huntington's
View on Military Obedience Toward Political Authority 7
Carl Ceulemans and Guy van Damme
- The Anatomy of a Command 23
Nick Fotion
- British Approaches to Military Obedience: Pragmatism,
Operational Necessity, and Moral Dilemmas 37
Nigel de Lee
- Obedience and Responsibility 65
Anthony E. Hartle
- Military Obedience: From Blind Discipline to
Knowledge-based Obedience 81
Colonel BEM Leclercq J-M

Between Obedience and Discipline: Between Law and Ethics	97
Asa Kasher
Of Obedience and Disobedience: The Ethical Dilemma of the African Military	123
Ibanga B. Ikpe
The Dark Side of Obedience: The Consequences of Hannah Arendt's Analysis of the Eichmann Case	143
Désirée Verweij
Just War and Human Rights	159
Rex Martin
The Right to Military Disobedience in Militarism, Pacifism, Realism and Just War Theory	181
Bruno Coppieters
Six Motives of Justified Obedience: A Case Study of the First Chechan War	197
Boris Kashnikov
Military Obedience: Does the Answer Lie in Professionalism?	207
Patrick Giddy
Obedience and Responsibility in Different Types of Military Ethics	231
Ruben Apressyan
Military Disobedience: A Source of Moral Dilemmas?	245
Fred van Iersel
Obedience, Law and the Military	267
Bjarne Melkevik
Notes on Contributors	284