

Radical Philosophy Review

Volume 5

Numbers 1 and 2 2002

Introduction Lewis R. Gordon	iii
ARTICLES
Rawls, Race, and Reparations Douglas Ficek	1
“To Ship as Cook”: Notes on the Gendering of Black Atlantic Maritime Labor David Kazanjian	10
Special Symposium on Development
Introduction Paget Henry and José Itzigsohn	26
Cultural Dependence in the Age of Informatic Capitalism Paget Henry	28
Dependency and Beyond: Elements for an analysis of social change in Latin America José Itzigsohn	54
Global Inequalities and the Legacy of Dependency Theory Giovanni Arrighi	75
Globalization and Capitalism’s Second Belle Epoque Samir Amin	86
Special Symposium on Radical Education
Introduction Jane Anna Gordon, Guest Editor	96
Educating Rita or Anyone Else for That Matter Gary Schwartz	101

Reclaiming Antonio Gramsci in the Age of Neoliberalism: Rethinking the Politics of Education Henry A. Giroux	114
Local Knowledge and Ritual Reproduction in Village Societies: Educating Young African Women to “Succeed in a World Authored by Men” Rogua Mustafa-Abusharaf	126
Notes on the Radical Politics of Urban Education Chris Amirault	141
“We Need Some Knowledge of Detail to Chuck Out the Rubbish”: Reflective Practice and the Development of a Competence-Based History Curriculum at a South African University Neil Roos	148
Race and Freire’s Pedagogy of the Oppressed Stephen Nathan Haymes	165
Contesting Linguistic Capital, Resisting Pedagogic Work: A Philosopher and A Group of Third Graders Do Poetry Janet Borgerson	176
REVIEWS
Thoughts on Bertell Ollman’s How to Take an Exam and Remake the World Kenneth Knies	186
Defending Anarchy: Robert Paul Wolff’s In Defense of Anarchism Haime Marantz	193
Black Skins, Black Masks: Spike Lee’s Bamboozled Guensley Delva	200
The Net’s New Enclosures: Lawrence Lessig’s Code and Other Laws of Cyberspace David Mertz	204
CONTRIBUTORS	207