

Radical Philosophy Review

Volume 21 • Number 1

A Note from the Editor

Harry van der Linden

iii

21st-CENTURY SOCIALISM: CONCEPTS AND VISIONS

Guest Editors' Introduction

Sebastian Purcell
and Sarah E. Vitale

1

SECTION 1: DIAGNOSING THE PRESENT MOMENT

Capitalism vs the Climate:

What Then Should We Do? What Then Should I Do?

David Schweickart

11

Beyond Extreme Monetary Policy . . .

and Towards Twenty-First Century Socialism?

Tony Smith

31

SECTION 2: VISIONS OF 21ST-CENTURY SOCIALISM

Liberation Politics as a (New) Socialist Politics

Sebastian Purcell

53

The Dialectic of the Individual and the Collective:

An Ecological Imperative

Nancy Holmstrom

77

SECTION 3: 21ST-CENTURY SOCIALIST PRACTICES

The European Grammar of Inclusion: Integrating Epistemic and Social Inclusion of Refugees in Host Societies

Mladjo Ivanovic

103

Methods of Democratic Decision-Making:

Elections, Deliberation, Mediation

Richard Schmitt

129

SECTION 4: THE INTERSECTION BETWEEN GENDER AND CLASS

Feminism, Capitalism, and Nancy Fraser's "Terrain of Battle"	Lillian Cicerchia Winner of the Iris Young Award	153
Socialist-Feminist Transitions and Visions	Ann Ferguson	177

REVIEW ESSAY

Agamben: Politics in a Philosophical Mode
UNDER DISCUSSION:
The Omnibus Homo Sacer , by Giorgio Agamben
	Richard Peterson	201

BOOK REVIEWS

Guns and Freedom
UNDER REVIEW:
Do Guns Make Us Free?: Democracy and the Armed Society , by Firmin DeBrabander
	Kelin Emmett	209
Philosophy, Capitalism, Individualism, and History
UNDER REVIEW:
History and Obstinacy , by Alexander Kluge and Oskar Negt
	Thomas Klikauer	215
New Questions without a New Art
UNDER REVIEW:
The Art of Revolt: Snowden, Assange, Manning , by Geoffroy de Lagasnerie
	Richard Schmitt	219

CONTRIBUTORS		223
---------------------	--	-----