27 Healthy Dividends: A Business Ethics Guide to Socially Responsible Investing

In this, our third annual investing guide, Patrick McVeigh offers his annual performance review of socially responsible mutual funds (page 28), and our intrepid investing columnist, Biff Robillard, gathers together three of the field's premier experts to survey the investing landscape for the year ahead (page 32).

Not Business As Usual

16 Good to the Last Drop Bill Fishbein's crusade for the 'Coffee Kids.'

18 What's the Big Idea? Brainstorming at Boardroom, Inc. yields big rewards.

19 Old Enough to Know Better A century-old insurer offers some ethics advice.

DEPARTMENTS

9 MUSINGS

Capitalism Grows Up

Marjorie Kelly examines the broadening wave of industry self-regulation and argues that the free market system is beginning to mature.

12 Trend Watch

A new study seeks to better define ethical—and unethical—business practices; the rise of the social audit; Honeywell takes it all back—or at least its old thermostats; corporate services for the homeless; and the ethical challenges of the Merck/Medco marriage.

40 Working Ideas

Chesapeake Packaging opens its books and Target trains teens to reach beyond the check-out lane. Also, testing the leadership skills of prospective executives and advice on how to deal with office politics.

42 WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Prisoner of the System

Severson's department was woefully understaffed which made it impossible to keep up with payments to his vendors. But was it right to violate policy in order to keep them happy?

46 PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS

Seize the Moment

Jim Jackson's meandering career path has always followed a simple credo: Change is good.
