

BALKAN JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY

Vol. 8, Issue 1, 2016

CONTENTS

Articles

Invited paper

Unearthing the Process Roots of Environment Ethics: Whitehead, Leopold, and the Land Ethic / 3

Brian G. Henning

Invited paper

Beyond Biocentrism: Cavell, Thoreau, and Transcendence in the Ordinary / 13

Naoko Saito

Invited paper

Relational Values: A Whiteheadian Alternative for Environmental Philosophy and Global Environmental Justice / 19

Barbara Muraca

Invited paper

Reclaiming Nature by Reclaiming the Body / 39

Guðbjörg R. Jóhannesdóttir and Sigridur Thorgeirsdóttir

Animal and Human “Umwelt” (Meaningful Environment)—Continuities and Discontinuities / 49

Spyridon Koutroufinis

The Extension of Moral Community in Environmental Ethics: Inclusion and Hierarchy / 55

Constantin Stoenescu

Whose Mountaineering? Which Rationality? The Role of Philosophy of Climbing in the Establishment of 20th-century Norwegian Ecophilosophies / 61

Silviya Serafimova

Ecological Paradigm within the Context of the International Policy-Development Study / 71

Slobodan Nešković, Žaklina Jovanović

Ethics in Ecology / 79

Mirko Tešić, Mišo Tešić, Boban Tešić

Does Experimental Ethics Have a Normative Account? / 85
Toni Gibea

Book reviews

Historical Trends of Western Evolution and the Improbable Prediction of Its Future
Developments [A Review of Lucian Boia, The End of the West? Towards the World of Tomorrow, Bucharest, Humanitas Publishing House, 2013] / 93
Marțian Iovan

Information for contributors