

BALKAN JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY

Vol. 7, Issue 2, 2015

The issue is co-sponsored by the Bulgarian National Science Fund, competition “Bulgarian Scientific Periodicals—2014,” project No. DNP 04/51 from 12.12.2014.

CONTENTS

Articles

Learning How to See / 99

Urban Kordeš

Coherentist Justification and Perceptual Beliefs / 107

Anna Ivanova

Yet Another Look at the Conceivability and Possibility of Zombies / 115

Maja Malec

What is Learned from Conditionals? / 125

Borut Trpin

Between Explanation and Understanding.

The Overview of an Investigation into the Function of Contradiction in the Explanatory Models of the Human Sciences / 137

Dragoş Popescu

Intentionalism: A Theory of Self-Deception / 145

Ivan Cerovac

How Can an Artefact Become an Artwork in the 20th Century? / 151

Mihaela Pop

The Second Enlightenment as an Aesthetic Enlightenment and its Relevance / 159

Fan Meijun, Wang Zhihe

Republicanism: A New Political Philosophy? / 169

Cristian-Ion Popa

The Spanish Inquisition as a Means of Influencing the Common Sense of Citizens / 177
Slobodan Nešković, Danijela Marčeta

The Development of John Locke's Ideas on Toleration / 187
Petar Cholakov

How Theology Looks at Neurotheology / 195
Ali Akbar Ziaee

Book reviews

The Berlin Group Anthology [Nikolay Milkov (ed.), Hamburg: Felix Meiner Verlag, 2015] / 205
Constantin Yanakiev

Information for contributors