

Table of Contents

From the Editors 1

Part 1: The Arts, Gender and the Self

Tribute to Chinua Achebe 9
Paget Henry

Three Poems in Flight (with illustrations by Patrick Fay) 11
Arturo Davilla

A Jamesian Poesis? C.L.R. James’ 20th Century Literary Journeys 21
Aaron Kamugisha

History and Drama in C.L.R. James’ Toussaint L’Overture: The Story of the Only Successful Slave Revolt in History 38
Nicosia Shakes

Silencing Prospero: Socio-Political Conscience Raising and Anti-Imperial Imperatives in C.L.R. James and Nicolás Guillén 61
Clement White

“My Sweet Mother I Know Not”: C.L.R. James’ Mariners Renegades and Castaways and Caribbean Philosophy 102
Marilyn Nissim-Sabat

Castaways, Cabins, and Democracy: C.L.R. James and His Radical Reader Response to Moby Dick 121
Patricia A. West

Part 2: Political Economy, Capitalism and Socialism

Race and Political Economy

C.L.R. James and W.E.B. DuBois: Contributions to the Past, Present and Future of Unorthodox Marxism 138
Ken Lawrence

Class, Race, and Emancipation: The Contributions of The Black Jacobins and Black Reconstruction in America to Historical Sociology and Social Theory..... 177
Jose Itzigsohn

But a Visionary, Returning Exile and Guest Activist
Ready to Join in the Work of Nation Building: C.L.R. James’s
Influence on Guyana and Caribbean Politics 199
Eusi Kwayana

Black and Bold: Re-examining C.L.R. James and Pan-Africanism228
Jerome Teelucksingh

‘A Kind of Bible of Trotskism’: Reflections on C.L.R. James’s
World Revolution 243
Christian Hogsbjerg

C.L.R. James: Herbert Aptheker’s Invisible Man 276
Anthony Flood

Political Economy, Parties and Direct Democracy

C.L.R. James’s Party Politics and Political Parties in Guyana..... 298
George Danns

The Vision of Toussaint L’Ouverture and the Degeneration of Haitian Politics: An Essay on The Black Jacobins 332
Mats Lundahl

“Every Cook Can Govern”: Direct Democracy, Workers’ Self Management
& the Creative Foundations of C.L.R. James’ Political Thought 374
Matthew Quest

Political Economy, Development and Socialism

The Bureaucratic Imperative: Economic and Political Challenges to Cuban Socialism in the Early 21st Century 392
Anton L. Allabar & Nelson P. Valdes

Emerging Economies, Ontogenic Practices: The Construction of a “Public Self” in the Brazilian Solidarity Economy Movement..... 423
Ana Margarida Esteves

The More Things Change, The More They Remain The Same:
A Critique of Socio-Economic Development Policy in Trinidad and Tobago Using Some Theoretical Concept of C.L.R. James 439
Dave Ramsaran

C.L.R. James, Walter Rodney and the Rebuilding of Caribbean Socialism 458
Paget Henry

Book Discussion

Realizing That One’s Consciousness Has Been Colonized:
A Review Essay on Marilyn Nissim-Sabat’s, *Neither Victim
nor Survivor: Thinking Toward a New Humanity* 485
Jane Anna Gordon

Response to Jane Anna Gordon 493
Marilyn Nissim-Sabat

Notes on Contributors 496