

CONTENTS

| | |
|-------------------------|----|
| Editors' Preface | xi |
|-------------------------|----|

I. SEMIOTIC MODELING

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Myrdene Anderson Knowledge Dynamics: Evolution and Development in Semiotic Environments | 3 |
| 2. Stanley N. Salthe & Myrdene Anderson Modeling Self-Organization | 14 |

II. PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON SEMIOTIC MODELS

| | |
|--|----|
| 3. Donald J. Cunningham Abduction and Affordance: J. J. Gibson and Theories of Semiosis | 27 |
| 4. James C. Lundy She Understood Him: "All Too Well" | 34 |
| 5. Donna E. West Form and Use Differences in the Acquisition of Speech Participant Signifiers: Evidence from Blind Children | 38 |

III. SEMIOTIC INTERPRETATION OF MUSICAL MODELS

| | |
|--|----|
| 6. William DeFotis The "Music" in Barthes' A Lover's Discourse | 53 |
| 7. William P. Dougherty Reading Beethoven's Readings: Toward a Semiotics of Song | 57 |
| 8. Gayle A. Henrotte Hjelmslev's Glossematics and Music: The Sign May Be an Illusion | 66 |

IV. COMPUTER SCIENCE MODELS

| | |
|---|----|
| 9. Walter J. Savitch Semen, Demonic Possession, and the Common Cold | 77 |
| 10. Robert T. Swank Metaphor, Myth, and Computer Language | 83 |

V. SESSIONS OF THE CHARLES S. PEIRCE SOCIETY

| | |
|--|-----|
| 11. André De Tienne | |
| Peirce's Early Semiotic Analysis of Representation | 93 |
| 12. Nathan Houser | |
| Peirce's Pre-Phenomenological Categories | 103 |
| 13. Sandra B. Rosenthal | |
| The Ultimate Logical Interpretant and the Dynamical Object | 109 |
| 14. David Savan | |
| Peirce and the Trivium | 116 |
| 15. Thomas L. Short | |
| Why We Prefer Peirce to Saussure | 124 |

VI. EXPANSIONS OF PEIRCEAN SEMIOTICS

| | |
|--|-----|
| 16. John Deely | |
| Semiosis: The Subject Matter of Semiotic Inquiry | 133 |
| 17. Jeffrey R. DiLeo | |
| A Semiotic Classification of Proper Names | 143 |
| 18. Terrance King | |
| The Relation between Peirce's Realism and His Idea of the Sign | 150 |
| 19. James J. Liszka | |
| Peirce, Saussure, and the Concept of Transvaluation | 156 |

VII. SEMIOTIC DIRECTIONS IN PHILOSOPHY

| | |
|--|-----|
| 20. Vincent Colapietro | |
| Recovering the Agent after Decentering the Subject | 165 |
| 21. David Lidov | |
| Locke's Formula and the Scope of Semiotics | 173 |
| 22. Ralph A. Powell | |
| Epistemology's Minimal Cause as Basis of Science | 180 |
| 23. Thomas A. Sebeok | |
| The Notion 'Semiotic Self' Revisited | 189 |
| 24. Scott Simpkins | |
| The Fear of the Arbitrary Sign | 196 |

CONTENTS

v

VIII. SEMIOTICS AND RELIGION

| | |
|---|-----|
| 25. Robert S. Corrington Faith and the Signs of Expectation | 203 |
| 26. Judith Porges Hollander Playing Cards with the Witch: Tarot Reading and Psychotherapy | 210 |
| 27. Felicia E. Kruse The Interior Castle as Mystical Sign | 215 |

IX. SEMIOTICS OF DECEPTION

| | |
|---|-----|
| 28. Tullio Maranhão Longing for Presence in the Semiotic of Deception | 225 |
| 29. Floyd Merrell The Sign of Deceit | 232 |
| 30. Terry J. Prewitt The Exposed Exotic Dancer: A Semiotic of Deception in Porno-Active Ritual | 241 |
| 31. Machiko Takayama April Fool and Halloween: A Semiotic Analysis of the Lie | 248 |
| 32. Inge Crosman Wimmers Figures of Deception in A La Recherche Du Temps Perdu | 254 |

X. LITERARY SEMIOTICS: CRITICAL THEORY

| | |
|---|-----|
| 33. Jackson G. Barry Defining a Narrative Signifier | 263 |
| 34. Vittoria Borsò The Literature of Silence: A Concern of Semiotics? | 268 |
| 35. David K. Danow Dialogue and Monologue | 277 |
| 36. Erika Freiberger Poetics of Illusion: Gogol's Fantastic Stories | 283 |
| 37. Michèle M. Magill Intertextual and Intradiscursive Analysis: The Holy Grail in Julien Gracq's Work | 291 |
| 38. Steven C. Scheer The Illusion of Reading: Deconstructive versus Semiotic Theories | 298 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 39. Anthony J. Tamburri Aldo Palazzeschi's 'riflessi': Retrospective Reading and Reverse Intertextuality | 303 |
| 40. Eva Tsuquiashi-Daddesio Saint-Loup and the White Rabbit: Intertextual Fiction and Reality | 311 |

XI. LITERARY SEMIOTICS: DISCOURSE ANALYSIS

| | |
|---|-----|
| 41. Thomas C. Daddesio The Role of the Paratext in The Name of the Rose | 319 |
| 42. R. Lane Kauffmann Rotpeter's Revenge: Kafka's "Report to an Academy" as Critique of Anthropecentrism | 324 |
| 43. Mary Libertin Deely's Semiotic as Doctrina and Joyce's "Process of Mind" in Ulysses | 331 |
| 44. Norma Procopiow The Semiotics of Narrative: Narrative, Prisoners, and Social Meaning | 336 |

XII. ELIAS CANETTI: TRADITION AND TRANSFORMATION

| | |
|---|-----|
| 45. David Darby A Fiction of Detection: The Police Enquiry in Elias Canetti's Auto-da-Fé | 343 |
| 46. Kristie A. Foell Absence as Presence: Sigmund Freud in the Works of Elias Canetti | 350 |
| 47. Steven J. Rosen Canettian and Freudian Approaches to Swift | 356 |

XIII. SEMIOTICS OF POETIC DISCOURSE

| | |
|---|-----|
| 48. Beverly Seaton The Pragmatical Dimension of Reserve in John Keble's The Christian Year | 367 |
| 49. Scott Simpkins Negative Capabilities: Shifting Signs in Keat's "Ode to a Nightingale" | 374 |
| 50. Sid Sondergard "Pain is perfect misery": Reading the Miltonic Discourse of Violence | 380 |

XIV. SEMIOTICS AND GENDER AWARENESS

| | |
|---|-----|
| 51. Thomas F. Broden Gallic Semiotic Subjects and Feminism: Greimas, Duras, et Al. | 391 |
| 52. Martha M. Houle The Play of Illusion in a Map of Love: La Carte de Tendre (1654) | 397 |
| 53. Linda Kintz Permeable Boundaries, Femininity, and Violence | 404 |
| 54. Katherine S. Stephenson Luce Irigaray: Theoretical and Empirical Approaches to the Representation of Subjectivity and Sexual Difference in Language Use | 412 |

XV. CAMILLO AND THE ILLUSION OF COLLECTIVE MEMORY

| | |
|---|-----|
| 55. Curt Dilger Theater and Architecture: A Parallel Experience | 421 |
| 56. Homa Fardjadi Camillo's Theatre and the Automaton | 429 |
| 57. Donald Kunze The Cone of Vision: Delirious History and Optical Mnemonics in Vico and Camillo | 436 |
| 58. David Leatherbarrow Architecture and the Illusion of Perfect Memory | 447 |

XVI. SEMIOTICS OF FILM, TELEVISION, THEATER

| | |
|--|-----|
| 59. Ian C. Henderson Max Headroom: Televisual Invention and Edison Carter | 455 |
| 60. Richard J. Leskosky The Illusion of Reality and the Reality of Illusion in Animated Film | 460 |
| 61. Milan Palec Scenography: The Semiotics of Violence | 466 |
| 62. Mary Ann Frese Witt Murder as Sign and Cycle in Les Negres | 471 |

XVII. SEMIOTICS OF ART

63. Lev Manovich
Perceptual Semiotics:
Functions of Repetitions in an Image 479
64. Deborah L. Smith-Shank
Art History versus Art Mythology: The Semiotic Tension 487

XVIII. SEMIOTICS AND POSTMODERN CULTURE

65. Jay Knaack
Garbage Pail Kids: Recognition and Adaptation 495
66. Richard L. Lanigan
Popular Political Signs: Jesse Jackson's Presidential Candidacy
as Depicted in Editorial Cartoons 501
67. Thomas E. Lewis
Semiotics in the Streets: Hyperrealism and the State 507
68. William Pencak
Stamping Out History: National Identity on Postage Stamps 516

XIX. SEMIOTIC ACCOUNTS OF LINGUISTIC CONCEPTS

69. Alexander F. Caskey
'Language as Work and Trade' as Metaphor 523
70. Joseph DeChicchis
The Semiotics of Mayan Imperatives 528
71. Michiko Hamada
Speaking as Signs of Embodiment:
Japanese Terms for Self-Reference and Address 536
72. Alicia Sakaguchi
International Planned Languages:
An Essay on their Definition and Limitation 544

XX. "PROXEMIOTICS"

73. Rui-hong Guo
Jokes, Transgression, and Laughter 553
74. Richard A. R. Watson
The "Classical" Proxemiotics of the Encounter 559

CONTENTS

ix

XXI. SEMIOTIC HISTORIOGRAPHY

| | |
|--|-----|
| 75. Stephan Bleier Horkheimer, Adorno, Foucault: The Term "Subject" in the Enlightenment | 573 |
| 76. Julio Pinto The Question of the Subject in Semiosis: Peirce and Lacan | 578 |
| 77. Anthony F. Russell The Semiotic of Maurice Blondel's Logic of Action | 583 |
| INDEX | 589 |
| Supporting Subscribers | 598 |