

CONTENTS

ALLEGORIES OF IMPERIALISM: BARBARIANS AND WORLD CULTURES

I-Chun Wang & Asun López-Varela Allegories of Imperialism: Barbarians and World Cultures	7
David Lea Sovereignty, Linguistic Imperialism and the Quantification of Reality	17
Abobo Kumbalonah The Invention of a Philosophy: Postcolonialism in the Context of Akan Proverbs	31
Antonia Peroikou Speaking (of) the Unspoken: Exploring the Mystery behind Friday's Severed Tongue in Coetzee's Foe	45
Temisanren Ebijuwa & Adeniyi Sulaiman Gbadegesin Mediating Ethnic Identities: Reaching Consensus through Dialogue in an African Society	57
Shiuhhuah Serena Chou Claiming the Sacred: Indigenous Knowledge, Spiritual Ecology, and the Emergence of Eco-cosmopolitanism	71
Stephen Joyce The Fearful Merging of Self and Other: Intra-civilizational and Inter-civilizational Colonial Cultures in Richard E. Kim's Lost Names	85

Oxana Karnaukhova Tracing the Roots of Colonial History and Orientology in Russia	99
Michaela Keck Culture-Crossing in Madison Smartt Bell's Haitian Trilogy and Neo-Captivity Narrative	115
Mary Theis Ideal Isolation for the Greater Good: The Hazards of Postcolonial Freedom	129
Maximiliano Korstanje Constructing the Other by Means of Hospitality: the Case of Argentina	145
Liudmila Baeva & Anna Romanova Challenges to Frontier Allegories: the Caspian Sea Region in Southern Russia	159
Soon-ok Myong & Byong-soon Chun Cultural Politics of Otherizing Hijabed Muslims in Kazakhstan	173
Nurlykhan Aljanova & Karlygash Borbassova Etiquette Rules and Intercultural Relations in Kazakh Society after Independence from the Soviet Union	187
Jinghua Guo The Multi-dimensional Model of Cross-Cultural Interpretation as an Anti-centralist Tool in World Literature Perspectives	197
Huiyong Wu The Impact of Confucianism on Chinese Representations of Japanese Imperialism as well as on International Relations	211
Simon C. Estok Bull and Barbarity, Feeding the World	221