

SOURCES AND NEW DREAMS OF WESTERN WISDOM

Editorial 5

TOWARDS THE SECOND TURN:
WISDOM AS HUMAN PERFECTION — CHALLENGE OF FEMINISM

Dorothea Olkowski — The Myth of the Individual 9
W. Scott Cameron — The Genesis and Justification of Feminist Standpoint
Theory in Hegel and Lukács 19

A RENAISSANCE OF MYTH?

Willis H. Truitt and Galina Iachkina — The Destruction of Reason 43
Simon Glynn — The Logos Mythos Deconstructed 59
Peter M. Schuller — The Logic of Mythos in Building Civilization 77
Russell Ford — A Fabulous Interruption: Towards a Mythic Politics 87
Paul G. Muscari — A Plea for Mythos 99

THE FIRST TURN: FROM MYTHOLOGICAL WISDOM TO PHILOSOPHY

Leonidas C. Bargeliotes and Penelope Triantou — The Cognitive Role of Plato’s
Use of Mythos 107
Silvia Benso — The Wisdom of Love or Negotiating Mythos and Logos
with Plato and Levinas 117
Stephanie Theodorou — Rethinking the Relation between Mythos and Logos:
An Aristotelian Reappraisal of Paul Ricoeur’s Theory of Metaphor 129

NOT ALL INTERPRETATIONS ARE “FOOTNOTES TO PLATO”

Sharon M. Kaye — Buridan’s Ass: Is There Wisdom in the Story? 137
Brian Seitz — The Who Has Lost Something but Knows Where to Find It:
Iroquois “Law” and the Withdrawal of the Origin 147
Ray Munro — Liminal Performances: Unveiling the Logos, Revealing the Mythos 161

* * *

| | |
|---|-----|
| Dictionary of Dialogue and Universalism (Draft)..... | 169 |
| Władysław Tatarkiewicz — On Perfection (J.K.)..... | 173 |
| Selected Contributions on Wisdom as Published in Dialogue and Humanism (1990–1995) and Dialogue and Universalism (1995–2005) | 174 |
| Our Contributors | 179 |