

GENDER AND SEXUALITY

Edited by Tomasz Basiuk

Guest Editor's Introduction — Tomasz Basiuk 5

I. POLISH AND INTERNATIONAL CONTEXTS

Sylvia Kuźma-Markowska — Why There Is No Gender History in Poland? 9
Agnieszka Mrozik — Gender Studies in Poland: Prospects, Limitations, Challenges 19
Ewa Hauser — Gender Studies in Poland: a View from Outside 31
Jon Binnie and Christian Klesse — Transnational Geographies of Activism around Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Politics in Poland 41

II. SEXUAL CITIZENSHIP

Tomasz Jarymowicz — Sexual Emancipation and Seyla Benhabib's Deliberative
Approach to Conflicts in Culture 51
Rob Cover — Genomic Sexuality and Self: the Cultural Conditions for the "Uptake" of Gay Gene Assertions 59
Joanna Mizielińska — Between Silencing and Ignorance: "Families of Choice" in Poland 77
Tomasz Sikora and Rafał Majka — "Not-so-strange bedfellows": Considering Queer and Left Alliances in Poland 89

III. CONSTRUCTING IDENTITIES, MEDIATING DESIRES

Robert Pralat — Desire "to Have" and Desire "to Be": the Influence of Representations of the Idealized Masculine Body on the Subject and the Object in Male Same-Sex Attraction 101
Karolina Krasuska — Trans-appropriations: Transgendering Nationness in Piotr
Odmieniec Włast's "In Grabow During the War: Book of Idyllic Poetry" 119
Błażej Warkocki — The Death of the Homosexual: on Grzegorz Musiał's Late
Work and the Limits of Modernism in Poland 139