
Environmental Philosophy

Spring & Fall 2007
Volume 4, nos. 1 & 2

Special Issue: Environmental Aesthetics and Ecological Restoration

Contents

Editorial Preface iv

Features

Allen Carlson, "The Requirements for An Adequate Aesthetics of Nature" 1

John Andrew Fisher, "Performing Nature" 15

Nicolas de Warren, "Off the Beaten Path:
The Artworks of Andrew Goldsworthy" 29

Arnold Berleant, "The Soft Side of Stone:
Notes for a Phenomenology of Stone" 49

Galen A. Johnson, "Forest and Philosophy:
Toward an Aesthetics of Wood" 59

James Hatley, "Sensing Environmentalism Anew:
Gestate Witness of a More-than-Human World in Merleau-Ponty" 77

Leslie Ryan, "Art + Ecology: Land Reclamation Works of Artists Robert Smithson, Robert Morris, and Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison" 95

Jennifer Foster, “Toronto’s Leslie Street Spit: Aesthetics and the Ecology of Marginal Land”	117
Glenn Delière, “Toward a Richer Account of Restorative Practices”	135
Max Oelschlaeger, “Ecological Restoration, Aldo Leopold, and Beauty: An Evolutionary Tale”	149
James Jackson Griffith, “Applying Systemic Thinking for Teaching Disturbed-Land Reclamation In Brazil”	163
Brook Muller, “Continuity of Singularities: Urban Architectures, Ecology and the Aesthetics of Restorative Orders”	179

Book Reviews

Bruno Latour. Politics of Nature: How to Bring the Sciences into Democracy . Reviewed by Randall Honold.....	193
Jeff Malpas. Heidegger’s Topology: Being, Place, World . Reviewed by Kirsten Jacobson.	195
Bonnie Mann. Women’s Liberation and the Sublime: Feminism, Postmodernism, Environment . Reviewed by Janet Donohoe.....	198
Deborah Bird Rose. Reports from a Wild Country: Ethics for Decolonisation . Reviewed by James Hatley.	201
Rosemary Radford Ruether. Integrating Ecofeminism, Globalization, and World Religions . Reviewed by Chaone Mallory.....	204