

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. The critique of Ethnophilosophy in the Mapping and Trajectory of African Philosophy
Pascah MUNGWINI 1-20
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.1>
2. Against the Political and Moral Conception of Globalization
Joseph N. AGBO 21-40
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.2>
3. Between Fiction and Fact: Further Reflections on Jonathan Chimakonam's Critique of Kwesi Tsri on Blackness and Race
Emmanuel OFUASIA 41-58
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.3>
4. Irregular Migration and the EU-External Border Policy in Africa: Historical and Philosophical Insights
Olukayode A. FALEYE 59-76
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.4>
5. Making a Case for an Economic Alternative for our Globalized World: Insights from the Margins
SimonMary Asese AIHIOKHAI 77-88
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.5>
6. Rethinking the Problem of Gender-Based Violence in South Africa: A Conversational Perspective
Diana Ekor OFANA 89-100
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.6>
7. Traditional Communal Understanding of Crime and the Role of Social Therapy: Ideas from African Philosophy
Erasmus MASITERA 101-114
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.7>
8. Interrogating the Relationship between Language and Thought Versus Individual and Community: A Conversation with Agada and Egbai Chukwueloka S. UDUAGWU 115-120
<https://dx.doi.org/10.4314/ft.v8i3.8>