

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CORNELIU PINTILESCU and COSMIN SEBASTIAN CERCEL
Introduction: Left-Wing Radical Politics and Emergency Powers
in Interwar Europe. 7

I. WITHIN OR OUTSIDE THE LAW: CONTAINING THE COMMUNIST PARTIES IN INTERWAR EUROPE AND ITS POSTWAR AFTERMATH

KRISTINA KRAKE
Taming, Not Banning: Scandinavian Containment of the Communists. 19

RASTKO LOMPAR
The Emergence and Evolution of Anti-Communist Legislation in Interwar
Yugoslavia 41

PASCAL GIRARD
Italian and French Democracies' Containment of Communist Unrest
in the Early Cold War 65

II. REVOLUTIONARY LEFT AND EMERGENCY POWERS IN INTERWAR ROMANIA

CORNELIU PINTILESCU
The Impact of the October Revolution, Social Turmoil and the Resort to the State of Siege in Interwar Romania (1918-1933). 89

COSMIN SEBASTIAN CERCEL
Unearthing the Dark Side of the Law. Narratives of Law and Authority in the Tatarbunar Trials. 111

CRISTINA DIAC

Scapegoats or Agents of State Dissolution? The Comintern, the Romanian Communists, and the Grivița Strike in February 1933 131

IULIANA CINDREA-NAGY

From Communists to Rebellious: Repressive Measures and Narratives of the State Against the Old Calendarist Communities in Romania
(1924-1939). 161

III. BOOK REVIEW

LOUIS MARIUS BREMOND

Alan Greene, Emergency Powers in a Time of Pandemic (Bristol University Press, 2020). 183