

Table of Contents

| | | |
|---|--|-----|
| Eva-Maria Simms & Beata Stawarska | Introduction: Concepts and Methods in Interdisciplinary Feminist Phenomenology | 6 |
| Silvia Stoller | The Indeterminable Gender: Ethics in Feminist Phenomenology and Poststructural- alist Feminism | 17 |
| Kristin Rodier | Touching The Boundary Mark: Aging, Habit, And Temporality In Beauvoir's La Vieillesse | 35 |
| Talia Welsh | Unfit Women: Freedom and Constraint in the Pursuit of Health | 58 |
| Neal DeRoo | Phenomenological Insights into Oppression: Passive Synthesis and Personal Responsibil- ity | 78 |
| Hildur Kalman | Faking Orgasms and the Idea of Successful Sexuality | 97 |
| Stacy Giguere | The Poetics of Childbearing: Revelations of an Other World | 119 |
| Linda Finlay & Barbara Payman | "I'm Already Torn": A Reflexive-Relational Phenomenology of a Traumatic Abortion Experience | 144 |
| Katherine J. Janzen & Sherri Melrose | When the Worst Imaginable Becomes Reality: The Experience of Child Custody Loss in Mothers Recovering from Addictions | 176 |
| Astrida Neimanis | Morning Sickness and Gut Sociality: Towards a Posthumanist Feminist Phenomenology | 214 |
| Geraldine Finn | What Kind of Saying is a Song? | 241 |