

Contents

- 5 Preface: The State of Catholic Studies
- 7 MICHAEL NAUGHTON (University of St. Thomas),
The Principles and Forms of Catholic Studies: A Tribute to Don Briel

The Catholic in Catholic Studies

- 24 ERIKA KIDD (University of St. Thomas), How to Put the “catholic” in Catholic Studies
- 32 KATHLEEN KIRSCH (University of Mary), How καθ’ ὅλον Should a Catholic Studies Program Aspire to Be?
- 38 SCOTT D. MORINGIELLO (DePaul University), Catholic Studies and the Culture of Encounter
- 44 NATHAN W. O’HALLORAN, SJ, The Development of Discerning Personal Judgment in a Catholic Studies Program

Catholic Studies and the Great Thinkers

- 57 MICHELLE LORIS (Sacred Heart University), Rescuing
Augustine and Aquinas: How Seminar Pedagogy Can Help
Save the Catholic Intellectual Tradition
- 65 FR. DAVID PATERNOSTRO, SJ (St. Louis University), Josef Pieper and the Leisurely Program: Enabling Leisure in a Catholic Studies Center

Catholic Studies and Place

- 73 DANIEL ROBER (Sacred Heart University), Locus Iste: Place-Based Learning in Catholic Studies
- 83 JOHN F. BOYLE (University of St. Thomas), Catholic Studies in Rome
- 88 ROBERT WHITE (Académie Cor Jesu), Study Abroad and Catholic Studies
- 102 SHANNON VALENZUELA AND MICHAEL WEST (University of Dallas), Showing Catholic Studies to the World: The Person and The Quest

Catholic Studies Within the University

- 110 MICHAEL TOMKO (Villanova University), The “Great Questions” Curriculum and Catholic Studies: Villanova’s Humanities Major, Teaching for Mission, and the Crisis in the Liberal Arts
- 124 ALLAN F. WRIGHT (Seton Hall University), Reflections on Strategies for Catholic Studies
- 131 MICHAEL P. MURPHY (Loyola University Chicago), Cultivating Catholic Studies and Charism through Co-Curricular Programs: The Annual John Courtney Murray, S.J., Forum @LUC
- 144 FR. MATTHEW BAUGH, SJ (St. Louis University), Catholicity and the University: In Search of the Whole
- 156 Art Notes: “Lord, Nothing but You”