

CONTENTS

Editorial Note	iii
Dedication	vii
Preface	xi
Teleology, Modern Science and Verification Patrick H. Byrne	1
“All my work has been introducing history into Catholic Theology” Frederick E. Crowe	49
Where the Late Lonergan Meets the Early Heidegger Joseph Flanagan, SJ	83
Knowledge Makes a Noisy Entrance: The Struggle for Self-Appropriation in Law Mary Ann Glendon	119
The Drama of Living, and Lonergan’s Retrieval of Transcendence Glenn Hughes	145
Lonergan’s Early Essays on the Redemption of History Joseph A. Komonchak	159
Historicity and Eternity: Bernard Lonergan’s Transpositions and Differentiations Matthew L. Lamb	179
Lonergan’s Foundations For Constitutive Communication Frederick Lawrence	229
Spirituality and the Primacy of the Dramatic Pattern of Living Sebastian Moore	279
Coleridge, Newman and Lonergan: Conscience and Imagination in the Moral Argument for God’s Existence Philip Rule, SJ	297
Bernard Lonergan and the Return of Ancient Practice David W. Tracy	319
Interview with Lonergan Pierre Robert	333