

Études maritainiennes – Maritain Studies

Vol. XXXVIII, 2022

SOMMAIRE – CONTENTS

Culture, Borders, and Limits

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Thought of Culture | 3 |
| Nikolaj Zunic | |
| Border and Place: Cultural Concepts in Canada | 18 |
| Elizabeth Trott | |
| Relinquishing Rights and Freedoms Under the Guise of Health Safety | 29 |
| Scott D. G. Ventureyra | |
| Law, Reason, and Virtue in the Ethics of Aquinas: Insights from Anscombe | 54 |
| Leonard Ferry | |
| Freedom and the Hermeneutics of Hope: Maritain in ‘Emerging’ African Hermeneutic Philosophy | 71 |
| Stanley Uche Anozie | |
| Jacques Maritain’s Philosophy of Freedom and its Contemporary Relevance | 88 |
| David J. Klassen | |
| Some Implications of Richard Gale’s Rejection of Practical Arguments for the Existence of God | 119 |
| James Gerrie | |

Book Reviews – Critique des livres

- Scott D.G. Ventureyra (ed.), COVID-19: A Dystopian Delusion: Examining the Machinations of Governments, Health Organizations, the Globalist Elites, Big Pharma, Big Tech, and the Legacy Media 129
David J. Klassen
- Scott Ventureyra, et al. Making Sense of Nonsense: Navigating the West's Current Quagmire 133
M. Oliver Heydorn