

Philosophy, Culture, and Traditions

Vol. 10 2014

ISSN 1609-2392

Table of Contents

Theme:

Oppression, Resistance, and Rights: Philosophical and Religious Perspectives

Theme Editor: David J. Klassen

Introduction David J. Klassen	1
On the Philosophic Connection between 'Rights' and 'Oppression' James V. Schall, S.J.	11
Defending Rights in a World Gone Mad: A Response to Father Schall Louis Groarke	19
Religious and Secular Foundations of Universal Human Rights and Equality before the Law David J. Klassen	35
The Theory and Praxis of Human Rights Nikolaj Zunic	53
Culture, Religion, and Human Rights William Sweet	73
Faith, Salvation, and the Sacraments in Aquinas: A Puzzle concerning Forced Baptisms Jennifer Hart Weed	95
Freedom of Conscience and Religion in Canada Mary Anne Waldron	111
Families and Faith Communities as Essential Mediating Structures in Canada Janet Epp Buckingham	123

Groups v. Groups: Getting Past the Narrow Paradigm of Individual Rights Paul Groarke	141
Flirting with Aggressive Secularism: Canada Confronts its Christian Law School Thomas M.J. Bateman	161
Natural Law and Scapegoating Christopher S. Morrissey	185
The Efficacy of Scapegoating and Revolutionary Violence Gregory R. McCreery	203
Aristotle on the Power of Factional Friendships: Instruments of Force or Disabling Associations? Ronald Weed	221