some of our Contributors

Nafees Malik

Nafees Malik is an Honorary Professor at Birmingham University. He holds degrees in medicine (MBChB) from Liverpool University and Bioscience Enterprise (MPhil) from Cambridge University, where he was later a guest lecturer. He has been a psychiatrist, longevity researcher, and bio-investor/entrepreneur. He is fascinated by metaphysics as well as cosmology, human history, and theology.

Susan Hopkins

Susan Hopkins is an associate professor of communications based in UniSQ College at the University of Southern Queensland, Springfield campus, Australia. She holds a PhD in social science and a Masters (Research) in education. Her research interests include philosophy, popular music, film, media, gender and cultural studies.

Michael Allen Fox

Michael Allen Fox taught philosophy at Queen's University in Canada. His books include Deep Vegetarianism, The Accessible Hegel, and Fate and Life: Who's Really in Charge? (just published). He is now Adjunct Professor at the University of New England in Australia and lives in Brisbane.

Christina Aziz

Christina Aziz majored in English Literature at Ain Shams University, Egypt, where she is now a Teaching Assistant. She hopes to be a widely recognized professor who provides her students with heart-warming, thoughtful lectures. She writes and translates articles on literary criticism, culture, religious studies, and film studies.
