

Contents

Prologue, 3

1. Values in Business, 5

A Theory of Business Values: An Overview, 7

Economizing/Power-Aggrandizing Tensions, 10

Economizing/Ecologizing Tensions, 11

Power-Aggrandizing/Ecologizing Tensions, 12

The Meaning of Value, 14

The Value Set of Business, 20

Found Values, 21

Original Values, 23

2. The Original Values of Business, 27

First Original Value: Economizing, 28

Economizing as an Energy Transformation Process, 30

Entropy and Thermodynamic Laws, 33

Entropy I: The Austere View, 35

Entropy II: Order from Disorder, 39

Economizing as Process and Value, 41

Second Original Value: Growth, 43

Intersecting and Conflicting Growth Paths, 45

Third Original Value: Systemic Integrity, 48

Is Profit an Original Business Value?, 51

Original Business Values—A Summation, 55

3. The Power-Aggrandizing Values of Business, 57

First Value: Hierarchical (Rank-Order) Organization, 59

Second Value: Managerial Decision Power, 63

Third Value: Power-System Equilibrium, 67

Fourth Value: Power Aggrandizement, 70
 On the Instrumental Uses of Coercive Power, 74
 Value Clusters I and II—A Summation, 76

4. The Structure of Corporate Values, 79

The Concept of Culture and Its Misuse, 80
 Corporate Culture, 84
 The Values of Corporate Culture, 90
Economizing Values in Corporate Culture, 91
Power-Aggrandizing Values in Corporate Culture, 92
The Value Core of Corporate Culture, 99

5. The Values of Managers, 101

Managers' Values: The Research Picture, 102
Empirical Values Research, 104
Nonempirical Critical Commentary, 109
 Managers' Embodied Values, 110
Managers' Organizational Commitments and Attitudes, 111
Ethical Climates and Organizational Values, 116
Value Uniformity and Variety: X-Factor Values, 119
Value Uniformity, 119
Value Diversity, 121
Values and Character, 125
 The Value Dimension of Managerial Work, 126

6. Ecologizing Values and the Business Dilemma, 134

The Nature of Ecologizing Values, 136
First Ecologizing Value: Linkage, 136
Second Ecologizing Value: Diversity, 139
Third Ecologizing Value: Homeostatic Succession, 142
Fourth Ecologizing Value: Community, 145
 Anthropocentric Interpretations of Ecological Process, 148
 The Interface of Economizing and Ecologizing, 151
 Varieties of Ecological Process, 153
Competitive Economizing, 154
Mutualistic Economizing, 157
 Power Aggrandizement and Ecologizing, 162
 The Central Ecological Value Problem, 165

7. The Values Within Technology, 168

The Wellspring of Technology, 170
A Friendly Warning Label, 171
Technology and Economizing, 173

From Genetic Technology to Cultural Technology,	174
Genetic Technology,	175
Cultural Technology,	179
The Elaborations of Cultural Technology,	181
The Logics of Cultural Technology,	185
A Pragmatic Logic,	186
A Combinatory Logic,	187
A Cumulative Logic,	188
A Progressive Logic,	189
A Cooperative-Coordivative Logic,	190
An Organizational Logic,	192
A Unifying Logic,	194
A Civilizational-Humanizing Logic,	195
Techno-Logics—A Summation,	196
Technology in Society: The Mumford Principle,	197
Business and The Mumford Principle,	198
The Values Within Technology,	200
The Technological Value Cluster (Value Cluster IV),	200
Toward Value Reconciliation,	204
8. The Business Ethics Question,	209
Responsibility Ethics,	210
Corporate Stakeholders,	213
Philosophic Ethics,	218
The Normative Code,	219
Social Contracts and Moral Communities,	223
Social Contract,	224
Stakeholder Theory Ethically Resuscitated,	226
Kantian Capitalism and the Moral Community,	228
Behavioral/Organizational Ethics,	230
A Value-Laden Workplace,	231
Ethical Work Climates,	232
The Managerial Actors,	235
The Moral Crossroads,	237
Plus ça change . . . ,	238
The Moral Mandate—and Its Missing Links,	241
Economics, Nature, and Technology—Quo Vadis?,	242
9. A New Normative Synthesis,	245
Repairing and Renovating Business Ethics Inquiry,	246
Refurbishing the Philosophers' Formula,	251
Rights: From Privileged Assertion to Experiential Values,	251
Justice: From Social Status to Social Involvement,	257
Utility: A Standard for All Seasons,	261

A New Normative Synthesis,	263
Choosing Grounded Premises,	263
Convergence Theorems,	266
The Social Contract Revisited,	270
Normative Cores and the Ghost of John Dewey,	273
What Does It Mean to Be Ethical While at Work?,	274
10. Business and the Moral Process,	277
The Culture of Ethics,	280
The Search for Ethical Constants,	282
Common Morality,	282
Virtue Ethics,	283
International Human Rights,	284
Competing with Integrity,	285
International Policy Regimes,	286
Religious Universals,	287
The Moral Sense,	289
Feminist Morality,	290
The Culture of Ethics—A Summation,	293
On Judging and Advising Business,	294
Epilogue,	301
Bibliographic Note,	303
Name Index,	305
Subject Index,	309