

Contents:

Announcement and calls for papers.....1
Tributes for Justus Buchler.....3
Book reviews:
 Deledalle, C. S. Peirce: An Intellectual Biography
 Randall Auxier.....7
 Westbrook, John Dewey and American Democracy
 R. W. Sleeper.....11
 Rescher, Cognitive Economy
 Guy S. Axtell.....14
Call for notes, notices, queries and book reviews.....16

UP COMING SAAP MEETINGS:

1991 Annual Meeting:

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy will take place March 5-7, 1992, on the campus of Xavier University, Cincinnati. Papers on all areas of American philosophy will be read; of special emphasis will be papers on the theme "Power, Pluralism and Post-Modernism." Persons interested in serving as commentators or session chairs should contact the Chair of the Program:

Peter Manicas
Liberal Studies
University of Hawaii at Mano
Honolulu, HI 96822
808/956-7297

Frank Oppenheim of Xavier University in charge of local arrangements has sent along the following progress report.

Conference participants will be housed at the Clarion Hotel in downtown Cincinnati. Hotel reservation forms and registration forms for the meeting will appear in the January issue of the SAAP Newsletter.

On Thursday evening, March 5th, downtown in Hamilton County Memorial Hall (next to Music Hall), Professor Lloyd Easton will present an address: "19th Century Culture in Cincinnati and the discussion, and a reception.

Participants who plan to arrive early in Cincinnati may wish