Guidelines for Submission

Articles should normally be around 4000 words. Shorter articles are welcome and longer articles may be considered. Authors are encouraged to submit their articles in Word format, by e-mail as attachments or on disks. Text should be double spaced, font type Times New Roman 12 and margins 1" all around. Contributors should include in the heading a short autobiographical statement, an email address and a summary of 100 words or less, containing key words and phrases that could be used to index the article. Submission of an article will be held to imply that it contains original, unpublished work. Articles accepted become the copyright of Thinking, unless otherwise specifically agreed upon. Rejected manuscripts will not normally be returned to contributors. The Editor reserves the right to make changes to manuscripts where necessary, in order to bring them into conformity with the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of Thinking. References should be indicated by giving the author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses. If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a. b. c etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in the following standard form:
 For books: Groenhout, Ruth C. (2004) Connected Lives: Human Nature and an Ethics of Care. New York: Rowman and Littlefield Publishers..
 For articles: Ranson, S. (1992) Towards the Learning Society. Educational Management and Administration, 20.2 pp. 68-79
 For chapters within books: Reed, R.F. (1992) On the Art and Craft of Dialogue. In Sharp, A.M. & Reed, R.F. (eds). Studies in Philosophy for Children. pp. 147-157. Philadelphia: Temple University Press.
 For websites: Lipman, Matthew (1996) IAPC timeline <http://cehs.montclair.edu/academic/iapc/timeline.shtml> (accessed 20 May 2006).
 Titles of journals should not be abbreviated. Figures: please supply one complete set of figures in a finished form, suitable for reproduction. If this is not possible, figures will be redrawn by the publisher. Pdf proofs will be sent to the authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be collected and returned to the Editor within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted. Offprints: A pdf offprint will be supplied to first-named contributors. Copies may be purchased and should be ordered when the proofs are returned.
