

The Paideia Project
20th World Congress of Philosophy

Volume 33
Philosophy of Law

Justification by Reflective Equilibrium in Rawls's More Recent Work Michael Anderheiden	1
Toward a Postmodern Theory of Law Ana Julia Bozo de Carmona	7
Judge Posner's Challenge to the Philosophy of Law Willard F. Entemann	13
Universalizability and Philippine Jurisprudence Emmanuel Q. Fernando	18
Hegel and the Russian Constitutional Tradition Alexander S. Fesenko	27
The Moral Core of U.S. Constitutional Bans on Hate Speech Codes Norman Fischer	33
The Relation of Rights to the Real: A Reconsideration of Bentham's Ontology Frederic R. Kellogg	38
Pluralism and the Universality of Rights Hans Jörg Sandkühler	46
Logic and Law in Russian and Western Culture Galina Sorina	57
How Ontology Saved Free Speech in Cyberspace Julie Van Camp	64
A Philosophical Perspective on the Regulation of Business Barbara Wendling	70
Dworkin's Wishful-Thinkers Constitution Peter S. Wenz	76