

CONTENTS

	Page
Presidential Address, The Political Philosopher	1
Wm. P. O'Connor, St. Francis Seminary, St. Francis, Wis.
The Individual and the State	10
John F. McCormick, Loyola University, Chicago.
The Philosophy of Civil Rights	21
Joseph V. Trunk, Trinity College, Sioux City.
The Philosophy of the Democratic State	36
G. A. Briefs, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.
The Philosophy of the Totalitarian State	50
Waldemar Gurian, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind.
The Corporative State	66
Joseph Cook, St. Peter's Seminary, London, Ontario.
The Church and the State	94
Charles A. Hart, Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.
Annual Dinner Address, Philosophy in Present Day Europe . . .	104
Martin C. D'Arcy, Fordham University, New York, N. Y.
Round Table Discussions:
Metaphysics	111
Problem: The Metaphysical Basis of Political Action.
Leaders: John Fitzgerald, University of Notre Dame, and Thomas A. Joyce, Dominican House of Studies, Catholic University of America.
Ethics and Philosophy of Society	122
Problem: In Terms of What Moral Principles is Democracy the Best Government?
Leaders: Mortimer Adler, University of Chicago, and Paul V. Kennedy, West Baden College, West Baden, Ind.
History of Philosophy	176
Problem: The Relations Between Ethics and Politics According to Aristotle and St. Thomas.
Leaders: Charles O'Neil, Loyola University, Chicago, and Emmanuel Chapman, Fordham University.
Philosophy of Law and Government	191
Problem: Public Control of Private Property.
Leader: Brendan Brown, Catholic University of America.
Psychology	203
Problem: The Psychology of Propaganda.
Leaders: William Cummins, Catholic University of America, and Malachy Sullivan, St. Benedict's Abbey, Atchinson, Kan.
Problem: Formal Causality and Fields of Force.
Leader: Thomas V. Moore, St. Anselm's Priory, Catholic University of America.
Logic and Method	235
Problem: The Extra-Syllogistic Forms of Reasoning.
Leader: Sylvester Hartman, St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Ind.
Problem: Plato's Grounds for Propounding His Ideas.
Leader: James Coffey, Seminary of the Immaculate Conception, Huntington, L. I., N. Y.

CONTENTS — Continued

Radio Addresses During Meeting:
The Church in a Changing Society	251
Charles A. Hart, Catholic University of America.
Present Day Philosophy in Europe	255
Martin C. D'Arcy, Fordham University.
Philosophy of the State	257
Francis E. McMahon, University of Notre Dame.
Minutes of Fifteenth Annual Meeting of American Catholic Philosophical Association	260
Report of the Secretary-Treasurer, American Catholic Philo- sophical Association	264
Report of the Standing Committee on Research	267
Report of the Committee on Resolutions	268
Minutes of the Meetings of the Executive Council, American Catholic Philosophical Association	269
List of Members, American Catholic Philosophical Association.	274