

American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly
(Formerly The New Scholasticism)

Volume 97

Issue No. 4

Fall 2023

Table of Contents

Introduction

Introduction: Special Issue on Late Medieval Hylomorphism	RUSSELL L. FRIEDMAN AND ZITA V. TOTH	431
---	--------------------------------------	-----

Articles

Durand of St.-Pourçain's Moderate Reductionism about Hylomorphic Composites	PETER JOHN HARTMAN	441
Ontological Commitment in Gregory of Rimini: Hylomorphism and the Complexe Significabile	RICHARD CROSS	463
Can Something New Be Produced by Moving Things Around? Local Motion and the Problem of the Metaphysical Status of Artefacts, 1300–1500	KAMIL MAJCHEREK	481
Innovative Conceptions of Substantial Change in Early Fourteenth-Century Discussions of Minima Naturalia	ROBERTO ZAMBIASI	505
Can Accidents Alone Generate Substantial Forms? Twists and Turns of a Late Medieval Debate	SYLVAIN ROUDAUT	529

Paul of Venice and the Plurality of Forms and Souls: Studying the Reception of Scholastic Hylomorphism in Fifteenth-Century Padua	THOMAS JESCHKE	555
Faculties of the Soul and Descartes's Rejection of Substantial Forms	ADAM WOOD	577
Individuation and New Matter Theories in Late Sixteenth- and Early Seventeenth-Century Protestant Scholasticism	HELEN N. HATTAB	603