
{ E P O C H É }
ἐποχή a journal for the history of philosophy

SPECIAL ISSUE: IDIOMS OF ETHICAL LIFE
Guest Edited by Nancy Tuana and Charles Scott

Guests Editors' Introduction NANCY TUANA AND CHARLES SCOTT	1
Letter of Thanks DENNIS J. SCHMIDT	3
Lives of Idioms CHARLES SCOTT	5
From Abode to Dissemination JOHN SALLIS	19
Greek Tragedy and the Ethopoietic Event WALTER BROGAN	29
In a World Fraught and Tender: On Dennis Schmidt's Contribution to an Original Ethics THEODORE GEORGE	39
Dennis Schmidt and the Origin of the Ethical Life: The Law of the Idiom PEG BIRMINGHAM	53
The Predicament of Life: Dennis Schmidt and the Ethical Subject ANDREW BENJAMIN	67
Ethical Hermeneutics, or How the Ubiquity of the Finite Casts the Human in the Shadow of the Dark Side of the Moon JAMES RISSER	79

On the Style of Philosophizing: Dennis Schmidt's Hermeneutics of Writing MARÍA DEL ROSARIO ACOSTA LÓPEZ	91
Hermeneutics without Meaning: The Comic and the Political JEFFREY T. NEALON	105
Death and Sacrifice in Hegel's Philosophy of Nature SHANNON M. MUSSETT	119
Earth Art: Space, Place, Word, and Time DAVID WOOD	135
Where Ethics Begins . . . DENNIS J. SCHMIDT	159