

CONTENTS

PHILOSOPHY OF DIALOGUE

| | | |
|-----------------|---|-----|
| | Introduction | 9 |
| CHARLES H. KAHN | The Philosophical Importance of the Dialogue Form for Plato | 13 |
| VITTORIO HÖSLE | A Form of Self-Transcendence of Philosophical Dialogues in Cicero and Plato and its Significance for Philology (translated by Benjamin Fairbrother) | 29 |
| GEORGIA WARNKE | Interpretive Democracy | 47 |
| RAINER FORST | Moral Autonomy and the Autonomy of Morality: Toward a Theory of Normativity After Kant (translated by Ciaran Cronin) | 65 |
| DMITRI NIKULIN | Dialogue versus Discourse: On the Possibility of Disagreement in Human Communication | 89 |
| CARYL EMERSON | Mikhail Bakhtin and the Dialogic Word in Literary Art: What Sort of Fiction is This? | 107 |

ADDITIONAL ESSAYS

| | | |
|------------------|---|-----|
| JEAN-LUC MARION | Phenomenon and Event (translated by Ella Briens and Elizabeth Lawler) | 147 |
| THOMAS TAM | The Death of Art: Bataille, Malraux, Hegel | 161 |
| DRUCILLA CORNELL | Who Bears the Right to Die | 173 |

REMEMBERING JACQUES DERRIDA

| | | |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------|-----|
| AGNES HELLER | Preliminary Adieu for Jacques Derrida | 191 |
| RICHARD J. BERNSTEIN | Derrida: Farewell to a Friend | 199 |

REVIEW ESSAY

| | | |
|----------------|---|-----|
| MARK LARRIMORE | Leibniz and China: A Commerce of Light by Franklin Perkins | 207 |
|----------------|---|-----|

| | | |
|-----------------------------|--|-----|
| BOOKS REVIEWED AND RECEIVED | | 219 |
| NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS | | 249 |