

Journal of Business Ethics Education

Volume 15: 2018 Special Issue

The Reflective Practitioner: Learning Beyond the Business School

CONTENTS

The Reflective Practitioner: Learning Beyond the Business School.....	3-8
Paul Caulfield, Petra Molthan-Hill, and Aldilla Dharmasasmita
Reflexivity in Teaching Responsible Management Outside of the Classroom: Lessons from Ancient Greek Theatre.....	9-32
Angelo P. Bisignano
What Is Corporate Social Responsibility? Using Experience-Based Learning to Help Students Answer the Question.....	33-48
John M. Tichenor
Final Ends at the Forefront: Lessons from a Pedagogical Experience at ESSEC Business School.....	49-70
Cécile Ezvan, Patricia Langohr, Cécile Renouard, and Aurélien Colson
Going Beyond the Classroom in Education for Sustainability: Partnering with Non-Governmental Organizations and Private Sector in a Project Management Course.....	71-96
Burcin Hatipoglu
Understanding Responsible Management Education from the Inside: A Case Study of a Case Study in an Insurance and Savings Company.....	97-124
Tommy Borglund, Magnus Frostenson, and Sven Helin

All Rights Reserved

© 2018 NeilsonJournals Publishing

ISSN 1649-5195

None of the material protected by this copyright notice can be reproduced or used in any form either electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording or by any other information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission from the owner(s) of the copyright.

