

CONTENTS

Introduction Jeffrey Bloechl	vii
Abbreviations	xv
Morality in the Laboratory: An Interview with Emmanuel Levinas by Josy Eisenberg Translated by Peter Atterton and Joëlle Hansel	1
Tracing the Sacred, Tracing the Face: From Rosenzweig to Levinas Jules Simon	9
Reflections on the Metaphysical God after His Demise: Heidegger and Levinas in Dialogue Sarah Allen	29
Recognizing the Gift in Giving Thanks: Thoughts on Emmanuel Levinas and Meister Eckhart Bernhard Casper Translated by Tobias Keiling	53
A Wandering Dog as the “Last Kantian in Nazi Germany”: Revisiting the Debate on Levinas’s Supposed Antinaturalistic Humanism Claudia Welz	65
Skeptical Poetics and Discursive Universality: An Etiquette of Legacy in the Time of Shoah James Hatley	89

Disastrous Responsibility: Blanchot's Criticism of Levinas's Concept of Subjectivity in The Writing of the Disaster Arthur Cools	113
The Novelty of Religion and the Religiosity of Substitution in Levinas and Agamben Christopher Fox	131
Tradition and Its Disavowal: Levinas and Hermeneutics Philip Harold	159
Notes	179
About the Contributors	208
Index	211