

Special Issue on Feminism and Process Thought

- NANCY R. HOWELL
69 Feminism and Process Thought
NANCY R. HOWELL is Assistant Professor of Religion and Chair of Women's Studies at Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, WA 98447. She is currently completing a book that proposes a Whiteheadian feminist cosmology.
- KATHLYN A. BREAZEALE
71 Don't Blame It on the Seeds: Toward a Feminist Process Understanding of Anthropology, Sin, and Sexuality
KATHLYN A. BREAZEALE, a graduate of Iliff School of Theology, is currently a Ph.D. candidate at Claremont Graduate School. She consults on special projects at the Center for Process Studies, 1325 N. College Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711.
- ANN PEDERSON
84 Forensic Justification: A Process Feminist Critique and Construction
ANN PEDERSON is Associate Professor of Religion teaching theology in the Department of Religion, Augustana College, Sioux Falls, SD 57197. She has published in Dialog and Word & World.
- HEATHER ANN ACKLEY BEAN
93 Eating God: Beyond a Cannibalizing Christology
HEATHER ANN ACKLEY BEAN is a Ph.D. student, concentrating in the philosophy of religion and theology, at the Department of Religion, Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, CA 91711. Formerly an assistant director at the Center for Process Studies, she has published in Creative Transformation.

CRITICAL STUDIES AND REVIEWS

- CHRISTOPHER IVES
107 Behind the Masks of God: An Essay Toward Comparative Theology, Robert Neville.
- CATHERINE KELLER
108 Journeys by Heart: A Christology of Erotic Power, Rita Nakashima Brock.
- THANDEKA
111 Hope in Process: A Theology of Social Pluralism, Henry James Young.
- MARY ELIZABETH MOORE
113 The Teaching Minister, Clark M. Williamson and Ronald J. Allen.
- 116 Book Note
- 117 Abstracts
- 124 Dissertation Abstracts
- 130 Announcements