

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
PART I
THE FOUNDATIONS OF LIBERAL MORAL THEORY
1. Aristotle, Ecology and Politics: Theoria and Praxis for the Twenty-First Century Jan Garrett	3
2. A Hobbesian foundation for Welfare Rights Sheldon Wein	15
3. Kant's Virtue Ethics and the Cultivation of Moral Skills David N. James	29
4. Mill and Dewey: "Individuals" Compared Erin McKenna	43
5. MacIntyre and Habermas on Practical Reason John A. Doody	59
6. F. E. Abbot's Ethics Creighton Peden	75
PART II
LIBERAL MORALITY IN PRACTICE
7. Moral and Other Responsibilities of Science and Technology Peter P. Kirschenmann	89
8. The Killing of Innocents Shyli Karin-Frank	111
9. Surrogacy and the Right to Have a Baby Mary B. Mahowald	127
10. Education as a Right Mario Morelli	139
11. Ethics and Social Relationships in Latvia Juris Rosensvald	151

PART III
LIBERALISM IN A CONSERVATIVE SOCIETY

12. Liberalism and the Overcoming of Modernity:
Reconsidering the Post-Modern Alternative
James P. Cadello 163
13. C. M. Macpherson, Human Nature and Liberal Democratic Society
Brian B. Clayton 175
14. Some Comparisons between Liberalism
and an Eccentric Communitarianism
Thomas Moody 187
15. Is National Health Insurance Congruent with Liberalism
Leonard Fleck 199
16. Liberalism and its Critics
Jeffrey Reiman 217

PART IV
PHILOSOPHY AND COMMUNITY

17. Philosophy in a Different Voice
Janet A. Kourany 239
18. The Law as Literature
Robert Ginsberg 249
19. A Proposal of Contribution as a Pattern for Distribution
C. L. Sheng 267
20. Evaluating Federal World Government
Ronald J. Glossop 283

PART V
CRITICAL NOTES

- Critical Notes 303