

CONTENTS

Preface..... vii

PART I

GLOBALISM, JUSTICE AND FEDERALISM

1. Globalism and the Obsolescence of the State:
New Support for Old Doubts
Jan Narveson.....3
2. Globalization, North-South Solidarity, and Other Arguments for “Upward Harmonization” of Human Rights
Jay Drydyk.....21
3. “‘Rewriting Genesis’:
Intellectual Property Rights and Global (In)Justice”
Alex Wellington .....45
4. The Obsolescence of the Nation:
Tagore on Nation versus State
Yeager Hudson .....81

PART II

STATE SOVEREIGNTY AND WORLD COMMUNITY

5. Human Rights, State Sovereignty, and World Community
Cheryl Hughes.....101
6. Sovereignty, Distributive Justice, and Federalism:
A Cosmopolitan Perspective
Peter Penz .....121
7. Transitional Justice and International Civil Society
David A. Crocker.....147
8. Realism in International Relations:
Power, the National Interest, and Justice
Alistair M. Macleod.....185

PART III
VIOLENCE AND COERCION

9. A Defence of Violence
Jason Gratl .....201
10. “Ethnic Cleansing” and the Liberal State: The Tragic Failure
at Democratic Transition in Rwanda and Burundi
George Carew .....213
11. Obeying an Outlaw Order
Carlos Bertha .....239

PART IV
DESIGNING OUR SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS

12. Human Visibility and Democratic Space:
A Critical Tool for Designing Our Social Institutions
C. Michael Liberato .....251
13. Is Feminism Compatible with Advocacy for the Disabled?
Women and Prenatal Testing
Mary Mahowald .....271
14. On Liberty and Property
E. J. Bond .....285
15. The Legend of Hegel’s Labor Theory of Reason
Jeanne Schuler .....301
16. Campus Consensual Relationship Policies
Margaret A. Crouch .....317