

Thought

---

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY QUARTERLY

---

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| Edith Stein as Educator . . . . .                               | Freda M. Oben                                | 113 |
| Wordsworth and the Zen Void . . . . .                           | John G. Rudy                                 | 127 |
| The Life of Ivan Il'ich . . . . .                               | David Patterson                              | 143 |
| Technology in a Free Society:The New Frankenstein . . . . . | Dominic J. Balestra                          | 155 |
| Mary of Nazareth, Feminismand the Tradition . . . . .       | Una M. CadeganJames L. Heft, S.M. | 169 |
| Paine and Sieyès . . . . .                                      | R. C. DeProspero                             | 190 |

THOUGHT, Fordham University Quarterly, published in March, June, September, and December, by Fordham University Press. Editorial, advertising, publication, and subscription offices: Fordham University Press, Bronx, New York 10458. June 1990, Vol. LXV, No. 257.

Single copy, $7.50; yearly, $17.50 (individuals), $25.00 (institutions); foreign, add $3.50 for postage. Second class postage paid at Bronx, NY and at office of additional entry at Lancaster, PA. THOUGHT, Reg. U.S. Pat. Off. © Copyright by Fordham University, 1990.