PHILOSOPHICAL STUDIES IN PACIFISM AND NONVIOLENCE

acornjournal.net

The Acorn: Philosophical Studies in Pacifism and Nonviolence is a peer-reviewed, scholarly journal devoted to the philosophical examination of the theory and practice of activism, nonviolence, organizing, pacifism, and resistance, especially as it relates to examples such as M. K. Gandhi, Martin Luther King, Jr., Cesar Chavez, and Jane Addams.

Established in 1986 by Ha Poong Kim, and edited for many years by Barry L. Gan, The Acorn is today published biannually with the support of Texas State University.

Subscriptions to the online journal, with access to “Online First” previews and archives of past issues, may be accessed at the Philosophy Documentation Center at <https://www.pdcnet.org/acorn/The-Acorn>.

Subscriptions to the print journal are also available. Please contact the Editor via email RM95@txstate.edu for pricing and payment information.

Subscribers to The Acorn are invited to become members of the Gandhi, King, Chavez, Addams Society on an “opt-in” basis. The Society is affiliated with the American Philosophical Association.
