Dear Friends:

The Acorn is growing, but it needs a continuous support from our readers. So we are writing this letter.

Since the distribution of the first issue last year, we have received many subscriptions, but we must say requests for free copies have far outnumbered subscriptions. While we are happy to receive such requests—we have solicited them—we definitely need more subscribers in order to make this journal viable. The Acorn needs earthly nutrients; it cannot grow on air alone. So we suggest to our readers the following:

If you are already a subscriber, please renew your subscription for 1987 (2 issues — $5) or for 1987-88 (4 issues — $10).

If you are not a subscriber, please do consider now subscribing to The Acorn.

(The subscription form appears inside the back cover of this issue.)

As you may know, the income from subscription fees can hardly cover the cost of production for any periodical of this kind. So we must, to a great extent, rely on donations from "Friends of The Acorn." We would appreciate whatever amount of donation you can give, beyond your subscription fee.

At present we are forming our advisory committee. Among those who have agreed to serve on the committee are Narayan Desai of India, Khang Ki Chul of Korea, Gordon C. Zahn (National Director, Pax Christi Center on Conscience and War; Professor Emeritus, University of Massachusetts, Boston), Michael N. Nagler (University of California, Berkeley) and Guy de Mallac (University of California, Irvine). We are also inviting some other people here and abroad to serve on the committee. The next issue should include a complete list of the members of the committee.

Yours truly,

Ha Poong Kim
