MUSINGS

THE YEAR OF THE ANGELS

By Marjorie Kelly

Encounters with the extraordinary new breed of business people coming to power in our time ... with musings on the genesis of a new business ethic.

TREND WATCH

What three books most shaped the values of people like J. Irwin Miller, John Rollwagen, Wayne Silby ... Doing business with the Soviets ... Four portraits of business people in service to society ... a new right-to-know standard evolves ... much more.

NOT BUSINESS AS USUAL

Real estate developer Jonathan Rose creates buildings where people talk to each other in the elevator (in Manhattan) ... Why every small business should open its books to everyone, and why it might feel good.

10

COVER STORY

EVOLUTION BY STRESS

By Bonnie Blodgett

Minneapolis/St. Paul has long been known for its caring corporate community, but many worry that today the tradition is dying. The truth is more interesting: It's evolving under stress.

14

PORTRAITS OF THE INTERIOR

A POET AND A PRESIDENT

Jim Autry of Meredith Corporation talks about work as community ... things he regrets ... "the luxury of anger" ... business as a spiritual enterprise ... and being the father of an autistic son.

20

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

'LIKE THE SUFFOCATING SMOKE OF A BLAZING ROOM'

By Doug Wallace

As division head at a defense contracting company, you've just installed hotlines for reporting fraud and abuse, and the first call comes in: There's a rumor going around...

26

BOOKEND

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF ALTRUISM

by Samuel and Pearl Oliner

We can best learn about altruism — in business or in life — by studying it in its purest form: individual acts of courage in Nazi Europe.
