INSIDER'S REPORT ON RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS

MAY/JUNE 1998

VOL. 12, NO. 3

OPINION

4 Musings

Thoughts on Saturn and the role of employees in governance.

12 Progressive Economics

The Ownership Solution by Jeff Gates discusses how U.S. economic policy has focused on full employment, but it's time to focus on widespread ownership.

15 Book Snacks

Insights on Leadership, edited by Larry Spears. Workers in a Lean World by Kim Moody. Orbiting the Giant Hairball by Gordon MacKenzie. Plus two recommendations for your reference shelf.

NEWS & TRENDS

Henry Kravis calls in his chits...Companies boycott rainforest logging...CERES popular with shareholders...CEP ranks Exxon among the most environmentally responsible.

5 Worth Noting

A dozen quick news bites...new laws to watch for, fax updates on SRI funds, a web site for Green Dream Jobs, progress on landmines...much more.

6 Equal Exchange Reaches Out to Mexican Suppliers in Distress

Responsible trade means treating suppliers as stakeholders when the chips are down.

6 Federal Reserve Listens (gasp!) to the Grassroots

Citizens challenge a $17 billion bank merger, and get the Federal Reserve to call its first public meeting in 20 years.

7 Company Watch

Employers shift health costs to employees...big trouble with responsible care...Levi Strauss goes back into China...Kathie Lee fails to keep her pledge...more.

8 The Future: the Market, the Government, or...Jazz

Three scenarios for the year 2050, from the World Business Council for Sustainable Development.

9 "Organic" by Any Other Name May Not Smell as Sweet

Quick, define "organic." (Why it took the USDA eight years to do so.)

COVER STORY / DOUBLE YIELD

18 Building the Social Portfolio

Three social investing experts show how they would build social portfolios, from $10,000 to $150,000, for folks worried the market is overheated. How to protect yourself with dollar-cost averaging, diversify with SRI funds, find undervalued stars, and guard principal with index notes.

MANAGEMENT

10 Working Ideas

Making new mothers welcome with breastfeeding support...Endorsing excellence in community relations at Clorox, Honeywell and BP America...Stakeholder reports paired up with annual reports at Whole Foods and Monsanto.

11 Warning Signs

Good news—bribery is being outlawed virtually worldwide.

17 What Would You Do?

Doug Wallace faces a dilemma: hurt a source, or pull the column?
