

BALKAN JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY

Vol. 9, Issue 2, 2017

The issue is sponsored by the Bulgarian National Science Fund, competition “Bulgarian Scientific Periodicals – 2016”, project No. DNP 05/31 from 21 Dec. 2016

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Articles

Biotechnological Creations, Life and the State of Indistinction / 91
A. Nayak

Nature vs. Human: A Modern Trail. Addressing Luc Ferry’s Ecological Discourse to the Social-Critical Theory of Modernity / 101
Oana Șerban

Why Can We Not Simply Move ‘from Ethics to Ontology and Back’? An Attempt at Rethinking the Environmental Ethics of Arne Næss / 109
Silvia Serafimova

Aristotle: Thought and Language / 119
Marin Aiftincă

The A priori as Bridge Between Kant’s Theoretical and Practical Philosophy / 127
Claudiu Baci

Hegel’s View on “Philosophy and Its Variety”
Based on the Preface of Phenomenology of Spirit / 133
Abdullah Niksirat

The Historical Evolution of the Concept of the Subject and the Contemporary Humanitarian Crisis / 139
Milad Azarm, Mohammadreza Khaki, and Sadegh Mirveisinik

Book reviews

The Edinburgh Critical Edition of the Complete Works of Alfred North Whitehead. Series editors: George R. Lucas, Jr., Notre Dame University and Brian G. Henning, Gonzaga University. Vol. 1. The Harvard Lectures of Alfred North Whitehead, 1924-1925. Philosophical Presuppositions of Science. Edited by Paul A. Bogaard and Jason Bell. Edinburgh Univ. Press, 2017, ISBN 978 1 4744 0184 5 (hardback), ISBN 978 1 4744 0185 2 (webready PDF), ISBN 978 1 4744 0468 6 (epub). / 149
Rosen Lutskanov

The Minorities: “Let Them Speak!” [review of Plamen Makariev’s monograph The Public Legitimacy of Minority Claims. A Central/Eastern European Perspective (Routledge, 2016)] / 152
Nonka Bogomilova