

BALKAN JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY

Vol. 15, Issue 2, 2023

The issue is sponsored by the Bulgarian National Science Fund, competition “Bulgarian Scientific Periodicals – 2023”, project No: KII-06-HII4/52 from 05.12.2022

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Articles

Invited paper

Truth and Modalities (II) / 95

Fabrice Pataut

Benjamin Constant’s liberal objections to Rousseau in the name of modern liberty / 101

Bainur Yelubayev, Csaba Olay

A historical perspective on the composition of propositions Ip9 and Ip10 in Spinoza’s
Ethics / 107

Mark Malkovich

Writing and death: An overview of the concept of death in Albanian literature / 119

Blerina Rogova Gaxha

The Grand Economy: Nietzsche and the virtual political economy of life / 127

Sercan Çalçı

Thinking as a form of political life, or “How can one think politically in a post-political world”? / 137

Irina Zhurbina

Creative and research segments of European humanism: Development of a single cultural space / 147

Olena Onishchenko, Svitlana Kholodynska, Iryna Muratova, Yevheniia Myropolska, Maryna Ternova

Elucidating the ontological potential of Care Ethics: Towards a revised narrative of morality / 155

Aastha Mishra

The normativity question in Quine's naturalism: The context of the language learning situation / 165

Shonkholen Mate

The art of education: Creative thinking and video games / 179

Lina Georgieva, Alexander Nikulin

The endophilosophy of interculturalism as a new terminology to describe the equilibrium of Being within the construction of Culture and Identity / 187

Arjan Çuri, Ilda Kashami

Extended cognition in education. Psychodrama as an extended mind tool / 195

Radostina Minina

Book review

Is Hermann Lotze a "dead dog"? / 205

Dimitar Tsatsov