

CIVIL WAR HISTORY

Contents for December 2000

VOLUME FORTY-SIX

NUMBER FOUR

Southerners against Secession: The Arguments of the Constitutional Unionists in 1850–51 by James L. Huston	281
The Smithsonian Abolition Lecture Controversy: The Clash of Antislavery Politics with American Science in Wartime Washington by Michael F. Conlin	300
Dr. Mudd and the “Colored” Witnesses by Edward Steers Jr.	324
C. Vann Woodward: November 13, 1908–December 17, 1999 by J. Mills Thornton III	337
Book Reviews	341
Endnotes	351
Index to Volume XLVI compiled by Nancy Birk	353
Contents for Volume XLVI	364

The cover illustration is of the Smithsonian Institution as it appeared during the Civil War, when abolitionists took control of the lecture series as described in the article beginning on page 300. Photography courtesy of the Smithsonian Institution.