

KAIROS – WISDOM – COVENANT – LOVE

Proceedings of the Third International Symposium on Universalism

Guest Editors: DAVID GOICOECHEA AND MARKO ZLOMISLIĆ

Acknowledgements	5
David Goicoechea – Introduction	7

I. KAIROS

Janusz Kuczyński – Universalism as the Vision and Proclamation of a New Covenant: Thinking – Wisdom – Love	21
Alicja Kuczyńska – The Work of Art as a Model of “The Open Whole”	32
Jokubas Minkevičius – Universalism: Humanistic Principles and Antipodes	39
James Lawler – The Universality of Liberal Capitalism and the Possibility of Renewed Socialism: Reflections on the Soviet Coup of August 1991	43
Władysław Krajewski – The Scientific Community as the Ideal of the Universal Human Community	58

II. WISDOM

Tsung-I Dow – Zero State of Mind in Thinking	65
Anilkumar Bhate – Whither Universalism?	83
R. Baine Harris – Can We Have a Common Humanity?	88
Werner Krieglstein – Chaos Theory Can Close the Gap Between the Sciences and the Humanities	96

III. COVENANT

Albert A. Anderson – Dialectic and Dialogue	103
Charles S. Brown – Phenomenology as a Methodology for Universalism	118
William A. Myers – Toward a Universalist Ethics	125
Hanna Newcombe – Federalist Theory and World Peace	138

IV. LOVE

Leo W. Zonneveld and James W. Kidd – The Energetics of Spirituality and Human Sexuality	147
Eugene Kamenka – Universalism and Evil	156
James W. Kidd – Investigative Interviewing: A Phenomenological Approach to a Universal Method	165
Venant Cauchy – Humanism as a Basis for Universalist Thinking	170
<hr/>
On Contributors	176