

CONTENTS

Philosophy and Our Times (An Interview with Academician Sava Ganovski, President of the IFPS)	5
--	---

PHILOSOPHY AND ART

Władysław Tatarkiewicz — The Concept of Poetry	13
F. David Martin — The "Between": Brancusi, Moore, and Giacometti . . .	25

PROBLEMS OF CONTEMPORARY HUMANISM

Jan Szczepański — Florian Znaniecki's Views of Technological Civilization .	45
Zdzisław Cackowski — Philosophical and General Methodological Problems of the Investigation of the Human Environment	55

MARXIST CRITIQUE OF PHENOMENOLOGY AND THE PHILOSOPHY OF ROMAN INGARDEN

From the Editors	67
Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka — Roman Ingarden's Philosophical Legacy and Beyond: The Creative Freedom of the Possible Worlds	71
Max Rieser — The Philosophy of Roman Ingarden in a Critical Light . .	89
K. M. Dolgov — Roman Ingarden's Phenomenology of Literature . . .	95
Jon Nygaard — An Analysis of Ingarden's Distinction between the Literary Work of Art and Its Related Branches of Art	109
Bohdan Dziemidok — Roman Ingarden's Theory of Value of the Work of Art in the light of Marxist Aesthetics	123
Maria Golaszewska — Ingarden's World of Values	133
Zbigniew Kuderowicz — The Problem of the Relation of Philosophy to Special Sciences as Discussed in Cracow in the Period 1944—1974 .	147

*

Andrzej Nowicki — Marxism and Phenomenology in Contemporary Italian Philosophy	157
--	-----

NOTES

Proceedings of the 15th World Congress of Philosophy (vols. III and IV) .	176
--	-----