

PHILOSOPHICAL ANTHROPOLOGY AT THE CROSSROADS

Guest-editor — Jagna Brudzińska

“Catching Meteors.” Philosophical Anthropology at the Crossroads	5
Stanisław Czerniak — Helmuth Plessner: Philosophical Anthropology as Social Critique.....	9
Stanisław Czerniak — The Category of “Contingency” in Contemporary Anthropological Discourse. Odo Marquard, Richard Rorty, Jürgen Habermas	29
Stanisław Czerniak — Max Scheler—Bernhard Waldenfels.
Two Phenomenological Conceptions of Suffering.....	53
Stanisław Czerniak — The Philosophical Anthropology of Arnold Gehlen as a Critique of the Age of Technology.....	75
Gernot Böhme — Self-Cultivation according to Immanuel Kant.....	95
Christoph Wulf — Towards a Historical Cultural Anthropology	109
Paweł Dybel — Man, Animal and Mirror. Origins of the Human “I” according to Helmuth Plessner and Jacques Lacan.....	125
Volker Schürmann — What Is Sceptical Anthropology?.....	141
Giorgio Derossi — Beyond “Wesenschau.” The Merleau-Ponty “Ambiguity” between Sensation and Perception	155
Serena Cataruzza — The Aesthetic Theory of Gernot Böhme and Gestalt Phenomenology	167
Rafał Michalski — Arnold Gehlen’s Anthropological Theory of Institution	177
Andrzej Gniazdowski — The Political Anthropology of Edmund Husserl.....	195
Alice Pugliese — Play and Self-Reflection. Eugen Fink’s Phenomenological Anthropology.....	215
Saulius Geniušas — Musical Works as Ideal Objects: Phenomenology of Music and Its Implications for Philosophical Anthropology	231
Jagna Brudzińska — Lived Body and Intentional Embodiment. New Perspectives on Phenomenological Anthropology	245